THE HORRID ATROCITIES OF THE NEGROES.

The Lynching of two Negroes at Evansville, Indiana.

A HORRIBLE CRIME TERRIBLY EXPIATED.

The two negro brutes who so fiendishly maltreated a white woman on Sunday, fearfully expiated their crime yesterday afternoon.
Early yesterday morning a crowd of excited people commenced collecting around the Court House and Jail, demanding that the prisoners be delivered up to them. The demand was refused, of course, and at noon the crowd dispersed, and it was hoped that better counsels would prevail, and that the guilty wretches would be left to the regular course of law.
But, after noon, the crowd assembled again,
and the excitement had evidently increased,
and continued to increase until about half-past three o'clock, when the front door of the Jail building was broken open with a sledge hammer, and the crowd rushed into the Jail.
How they were treated the prisoners we did learn, but they soon dragged forth into the street, beaten down with clubs and shot.

After they were dead they were taken up and hanged to a lamp post on the corner of the street, where they were hanging at a late hour in the evening. They were ultimately, we learn, taken down and buried.
It was the first scene of the kind ever executed in Evansville, and for the first time of the city, we hope it will be the last.
Every one execrates the abominable and brutal crime committed by the negroes, but mob law is a dangerous remedy for evil of this or any kind, and all good citizens deplore a resort to it, and we hope this fearful and summary punishment will prove such a warning as that we shall never again hear of such a crime in our midst.—Evansville Journal.

[From the Chicago Times, August 3.]
AN INFAMOUS NEGRO—HE PURSUED FOUR YOUNG LADIES IN THE STREET, ARMED WITH A BOWIE KNIFE—THE FATHER OF ONE OF THE LADIES SHOTS THE SCOUNDREL —PARTICULARS OF THE AFFRAY.
An extraordinary turmoil occurred on Tuesday evening, at the residence of Mr.
Nelson Walwick, No. 72 Fourth avenue, in which that gentleman took a prominent part.
There lives in that vicinity a certain negro of rowdy proclivities, who is said to be the terror of all the young children and all the respectable citizens of the neighborhood. He is in the habit of amusing himself by chasing little girls and boys with a large bowie-knife in his hand, threatening to cut them up into little pieces, and make supper of them. He might be taken for a madman, but there is disputable method in his madness, and the people who live in his immediate vicinity have good reason to be alarmed at his wild frolics, which were liable at any moment to result in some fatal accident.

About nine o'clock on Tuesday evening Mr. Walwick's two daughters were passing near this man's dwelling, in company with two young ladies who reside in the same locality. The negro, without any provocation, rushed upon them like some furious bull dog, and drawing his bowie knife prepared to attack the party. The young ladies screamed aloud for help, the negro following close at their heels, swearing in a frightful manner, and uttering the direst threats that he would butcher them.
Mr. Walwick, who was sitting in his room, heard the scream of the young ladies, and going to the door saw his two daughters and their friends making for the house, pursued by the negro with the knife in his hand.
Stepping back to his desk he took out his revolver, and presented it at the breast of the negro, who had just then got within the door. The furious chase continued to vent the most horrible imprecations against every body in general, but retreated to the door step, having a righteous dread of the pistol, which was pointed unflinchingly at his heart.

By this time a large crowd had assembled in front of the house. Mrs. Walwick and another lady then came out and seized Mr.
Walwick by the arm, to prevent him doing any harm to the negro. It appears, however, that he did not then contemplate any thing serious, but merely desired to frighten the man. The latter, seeing Mr. Walwick entangled between two ladies, made a sudden rush upon him with the bowie-knife. At the same instant Mr. Walwick released his arm and fired. The shot took effect in the left side of the colored man, who fell back to the street. A gentleman from Camp Douglas, who happened to be passing at the moment, took hold of him, not knowing he had been shot, when the negro drew his knife and inflicted a sharp wound upon his hand. At length he succumbed and was carried to his home.

The wound had been examined by a surgeon, who is of the opinion that he will soon recover.
Mr. Walwick appeared at the Police Court yesterday, to answer the charge of committing an assault with intent to kill. The examination was postponed till Friday, the defendant giving bail in $2,510 for his appearance.
[From the Louisville Democrat August 4.]

The case to which we allude occurred in Clarke County, Ind., late Sunday night. A party of two negro soldiers went to the house of Mrs. White, near where a party of negro soldiers are encamped, and demanded milk, which was refused, as there was none in the house, which explanation was given in a very pleasant tone of voice. The negroes then insulted Mrs. White in the most outrageous manner, and attempted to violate her person. Her cries brought some neighbors to her rescue, when the villains made good their escape.
The news of this outrage was soon made known, when the citizens armed themselves and started in pursuit of the outlaws and would-be murderers. They have been unable to obtain any clue as to their whereabouts.

The citizens are still in search of the ruffians, and if they are caught they will be suspended by a piece of hemp to a limb of the nearest tree.
Yesterday morning the body of a negro was found on the Charleston Road, about four hundred yards from where the outrage was committed. At the time our informant left, the excitement was intense, and there was no telling what might be the result—a mob against the negroes being anticipated.

(DAN RICE, PROPRIETOR.)
Comprising the most intelligent, and docile, most accomplished, and most personable animals which the world has ever noticed, and the development of their powers, and the exhibition of their kind, and patient instructor is calculated to excite the noblest feelings of admiration, wonder and curiosity. Foremost among the developed specimens of the brute creation stand the SACRED CATTLE OF INDIA.
Imported by Mr. RICE from Hindostan, and the first they are held in high veneration by all classes, and regarded as
OBJECTS OF WORSHIP.
These beautiful and docile creatures are of peculiar and curious formation, differing in many respects from all other varieties of Bovines. They are remarkably intelligent and Mr. RICE has succeeded in training to such a degree, that he is enabled to introduce him into the Ring, where he comes him to perform a great variety of curious and pleasing feats.
Another rare specimen of the Bovine species will be found in the

The Lynching of two Negroes at Evansville, Indiana.

The two negro brutes who so fiendishly
fully expiated their crime yesterday afternoon.
cited people commenced collecting around the Court House and Jail, demanding that the
counsels would prevail, and that the guilty
of law.
But, after noon, the crowd assembled again,
and the excitement had evidently increased,
and continued to increase until about half-
past three o'clock, when the front door of the Jail building was broken open with a sledge
hammer, and the crowd rushed into the Jail.
How they were treated the prisoners we did
street, beaten down with clubs and shot.
